Subject: Contact information for suggested AGIA' phone calls

Governor,
Thanks for taking the time to speak with me earlier today. Like everyone, I'm sending up prayers that the legislature does the right thing for Alaska during today's ACES' debate.

During yesterday's phone conversation we discussed the possibility of you making telephone calls to the TransCanada & MidAmerican CEO's, conveying your hope they choose to participate in the AGIA process. Here are more specifics for those phone calls. For your information, the contact information I have for these two CEO's are their work contact information, therefore I would suggest you make these calls early next week. Finally, the messaging suggestions are somewhat tailored to the particular party in order to address issues that I know to be their concerns:

1) TransCanada Pipelines Ltd.
Hal Kvisle, President and CEO (Kvisle is pronounced KWISLEE)
Corporate Headquarters: Calgary, Alberta, Canada
Hal Kvisle's Scheduler is Samantha Smith @ Phone # 403-920-2017

General Information:

- I believe you have previously spoken with Hal Kvisle on the phone re: the AGIA process
- TransCanada's primary contact person for Alaska is Tony Palmer;
- Tony Palmer's boss, who heads their gasline effort, is Russ Girling, President/Pipelines

Suggested Message:

Privileged or Personal Material Redacted

2) MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company
David Sokol, Chairman and CEO (Sokol is pronounced SEW-KULL)
Corporate Headquarters: Omaha, Nebraska
Phone # 402-231-1400
David Sokol's Assistant/Scheduler is Barbara Tracy @ Phone # 402-231-1402

General Information:

- You and I had breakfast with David Sokol in Washington DC in late February and since then I believe you have spoken with him on the phone;
- David Sokol is one of two CEO's that report directly to Warren Buffet. MidAmerican is a subsidiary of Warren Buffet's company, Berkshire Hathaway, Inc. David is also an owner in Berkshire Hathaway, which is a diversified, privately held company.

Suggested Message:

Privileged or Personal Material Redacted

Once again, Governor, your willingness to assist the AGIA effort is greatly appreciated by your Gasline Team.
Marty

Subject: Fw: troops returning

Thought I'd send the schedule below and a suggestion. The generals don't really want us at the plane as troops come off with weapons as that, in their view, is traditionally a military greeting by commanders. They suggest if we want to participate that we meet with the families in the gym where the troops get bussed to after they land. The last thing I want to do is greet people as families are reunited, but Jay suggested that arriving early at the fieldhouse and saying hello to the spouses before the troops get there could work really well...and then fade away and let the families unite without us in the middle of it. Just wanted you to know what we're thinking. It might be good for you to make one or two of these next week if you're able. Let me know whether you plan any. I won't be able to get to all. (If you scroll down past the message below you'll see tentative dates.)

Thanks

Sean

Robert just contacted me and gave me the info below for troops returning, with all times very "tentative" except for the one today.

He said they normally try to wait until they know for sure what time they'll arrive before notifying people, since the time changes so drastically every time. I asked him to let us know when the wheels of the planes leave the ground in Iraq, and he said he would, and then he'll give us updates to the accurate time of arrival here.

He suggests that you meet the troops in the gym with the families, like you have before, rather than the plane, because normally at the plane, only the General is there, and they're busy securing their weapons, etc.

Today: 12:30 PM w/231 pax (this time is pretty set in stone, since the troops have already left the ground in the states on their way here)

SAT: 2:40 PM w/291 pax returning

MON, NOV 19: 10:40 AM

TUE, NOV 20: 5 AM

Dont know time or anything just that they are. We might want to check in and find out what time. Not sure that the LG will have time before Kenai anyway, but it would be nice if they were at least letting us

I spoke with Senator Stevens about our offer that the congressional delegation join the state's amicus brief. He was most appreciative that you and the Governor are providing this opportunity.

The Senator said that he would be talking to his two colleagues and then would get back to us. He mentioned that, before receiving the state's invitation, the delegation had contemplated filing an amicus of their own. The Senator has some personal recollections in the immediate aftermath of the Exxon/Valdez accident which he thinks will be helpful to the Court but could not easily be inserted into our brief.

I responded that either a joint brief or two separate ones would be fine with us and agreed with him that personal recollections would probably not be appropriate for our brief. We agreed that, in any event, we could coordinate on the briefs if we file separately.

My guess is that, as the only lawyer in the delegation, Senator Stevens' views will be persuasive with his colleagues. I haven't heard anything yet from the other two delegation members and probably won't until Senator Stevens talks with them directly.

In the meantime, the Senator asked me to advise him on the deadline for filing amicus briefs and when we would intend to file ours. Could you help me with this? Thanks.

There was no work order for the tanning bed and no one here has discussed it with ADN or anyone else. Did Gail at the AK Club say that she'd be discreet about your purchase? They knew it required a 220 outlet.

We've had 3 electricians bid on the 220. They agreed that it was a good thing to add more capacity to the third floor for future use and for the w/d I want moved up there after it's not needed for the plumbing project.

The one bid in so far-

$3500- cedar closet

$3200-basement family room

No bid too complicated for Todd's office.

We're waiting for 2 other bids to come in.

Justice Robert L. Eastaugh was born in Seattle in 1943 and first traveled to Alaska in 1944. In early 1946 the family permanently returned to Alaska, where his parents had been born. Justice Eastaugh was raised in Juneau, where his father, F.O. Eastaugh, and grandfather, R.E. Robertson, both practiced law. Justice Eastaugh graduated from Juneau-Douglas High School in 1961. He holds a B.A. in English Literature from Yale University and a J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School. He was admitted to practice law in Alaska in 1968. He was an Alaska Assistant Attorney General from 1968 - 1969 and an Assistant District Attorney from 1969 - 1972. He was in private practice at Delaney, Wiles, Hayes, Reitman & Brubaker, Inc. between 1972 and 1994. His professional emphasis was on appeals. Governor Walter J. Hickel appointed him to the supreme court. He took office on April 18, 1994. He has been co-chair of the Alaska Supreme Court's Fairness and Access Implementation Committee since 1998, has been a member of the Alaska Supreme Court's Appellate Rules Committee since 1985, chaired an Alaska Court System committee that revised personnel rules and procedures on discriminatory harassment, and was a Bar Examiner for the Alaska Bar Association in the early 1980's. He was a charter member of the Advisory Committee on Rules of Practice and Internal Operating Procedures for the Ninth Circuit, serving from 1983-1992. He chairs an Alaska Supreme Court committee to reduce appellate delay. He has two grown children.

Justice Walter L. Carpeneti was born in San Francisco in 1945. He graduated with an A.B. degree (with distinction) in History from Stanford University in 1967, and received a J.D. degree from the University of California at Berkeley in 1970, where he was managing editor of the law review. He was a law clerk for Justice John H. Dimond of the Alaska Supreme Court in 1970-71. From 1972 to 1974 he was in private practice in San Francisco, first with Melvin Belli and then in an office with his father, retired San Francisco Superior Court Judge Walter I. Carpeneti, and his brother, Richard Carpeneti. He returned to Alaska in 1974 as the Public Defender in Juneau. He left that office in 1978 to go into practice with William T. Council, where he stayed until appointed to the Superior Court by Governor Jay Hammond in 1981. He was a judge of that court in Juneau until 1998, when he was appointed to the Supreme Court by Governor Tony Knowles. He was married to Anne Dose Carpeneti in 1969, and they have four children: Christian, Marianna, Lia, and Bianca.

Justice Alexander O. Bryner retired on October 31, 2007. Appointment of a new justice is expected soon.
